ITINERARY

Day 1 – July 11 ARRIVE IN VANCOUVER

D

Welcome to Canada and one of it's' most beautiful cities, Vancouver. Past host of the 2010 Winter Olympics, Vancouver is located on a large natural harbour, surrounded by the rugged Coastal Mountains. If time permits, on the way from the airport we'll visit Queen Elizabeth Park and do a little sightseeing before arriving at our hotel for the next 2 nights. Tonight enjoy a special Welcome Dinner.

Overnight Vancouver – Sheraton Wall Centre or similar

Day 2 – July 12 VICTORIA & BUTCHART GARDENS

B/D

An early morning departure will take us to the BC Ferry terminal for a spectacular 90-minute cruise through the Gulf Islands to Vancouver Island. We'll travel the short distance to Victoria, capital city of British Columbia and one of the most beautiful cities in Canada. After a short city tour there will be time to explore the shops, museums and galleries of this little bit of "Old England". Next we arrive at the world-famous Butchart Gardens where there will be lots of time to explore the 50-acres of colour and floral beauty.. Later in the afternoon we board our deluxe BC Ferry and enjoy a fine buffet dinner as we cruise back to the mainland through the Gulf Islands. Overnight Vancouver – Sheraton Wall Centre or similar

Day 3 – July 13 ROCKY MOUNTAINEER - VANCOUVER – KAMLOOPS

B/L

Early this morning our motorcoach will transfer us to the rail station. Here, we'll board the famous Rocky Mountaineer for our spectacular 2-day journey from Vancouver to Jasper. We'll be riding in the Luxury of SilverLeaf Service with comfortable reserved seating and spectacular viewing. A hot gourmet breakfast is served as the train pulls out of Vancouver and heads east through the lush Fraser River Valley. Soon we will be traveling along the rugged cliffs of the Fraser River surrounded by the peaks of the Coastal and Cascade mountains. A hot lunch will also be served along with constant snacks, fresh cookies and complimentary bar
